PARENT QUOTE

“This is the best decision that we could have made for our child. The results speak for themselves. We had previously been given a dire outlook. Now, thanks to Cause & Effect, we sleep soundly at night.”

DEVELOPING YOUR
Child's Potential
EARLY INTERVENTION SERVICES

Our Program

Cause & Effect is an Early Intervention Service for Preschool Children (2.5 - 5 years of age) with Special needs.

Serving Children Where They Live

We come to you! This includes your neighborhood preschool, your home or day-care and other neighborhood activities.

Tailored to Your Child

We meet your child's individual needs through play with a purpose. We offer enriched learning opportunities through socialization, music, stories, games, sensory exploration and physical activities.

Family Centered Program

We believe that parents are an integral part of their child's program.

One to One Direct Learning Support

Our experienced Pediatric trained Therapists and Special Education Teachers work individually with your child. These certified specialists all promote your child's development of preschool skills and concepts around their identified needs.

Fully Supported Transitional Planning to a School Setting

In deciding on the appropriate school for your child, our teachers will walk you through your available educational options. Our team works closely with you and your child's receiving school to facilitate a smooth transition for the next step.

Our Mission

To promote maximum skill development of children who have special needs in their preschool years.
